PARKS:
Scarcity, Equity, Safety, Affordability, Priority!
Are we achieving what we can and must from our parks in an accelerating intensification context?

At the 28th Annual Dinner, on World Town Planning Day, we are thrilled to welcome internationally-recognized planner, Mitchell J. Silver. Mitchell will share his experiences and insights on the importance of parks to our rapidly intensifying and diversifying communities and the complexities and opportunities he has encountered in delivering and operating these spaces.

Mitchell, Commissioner of the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation, was named one of the top international thought leaders of the built environment in 2012, by the Urban Times and UBM Future Cities named him one of the top 100 City Innovators in the world in 2013. Mitchell's work has been featured extensively in the press, including: Time Magazine, The New York Times, The Guardian (U.K.), Philadelphia Inquirer, Huffington Post, Associated Press, Planning Magazine, BBC World News and National Public Radio (NPR).

Mitchell is a Fellow and the immediate past President of the American Planning Association (APA). He has been at the centre of many cutting-edge innovative solutions and visionary plans, including Harlem on the River and Vision for Jamaica Center in New York City. He has also been involved with the revitalization of neighbourhoods from New York City to Philadelphia, Washington and Raleigh and has taught graduate planning courses at many pre-eminent educational institutions such as Harvard University, The City University of New York, and Pratt Institute.

THE 28th ANNUAL DINNER

The University of Waterloo Planning Alumni of Toronto has been bringing the planning industry together for the past twenty-seven years. The 28th Annual Dinner promises to be another great success. The Dinner provides an exceptional opportunity to socialize, network and meet other professionals. It has become the "must attend" event for all planning, legal, land development and related professionals in Ontario.

The Dinner provides financial support for the Planner-in-Residence Program, scholarships and other initiatives for University of Waterloo School of Planning students. The Dinner is held at the Royal York, a well-known and elegant landmark hotel centrally located in downtown Toronto's Financial District. It is convenient to GO, TTC and UPX services at Union Station as well as parking.
